

Orlando Math Circle

End of the Year Highlights

- OMC's first article published in peer-reviewed journal: Journal of Math Circles (Connecting Mathematics and Community)
- 3rd place in Elementary division of National Mathcon 2019 Finals
- Partnerships with Rollins College, Winter Park Public Library
- Brought the first Julia Robinson Mathematics Festival to Central Florida
- Started Florida's first Teachers' Math Circle in collaboration with Hector Rosario of Julia Robinson Mathematics Festival and Rollins College
- Presented at Florida Association for the Gifted
- Presented 3 sessions at Florida Association of Science Teachers Regional Conference
- Received Maker of Merit award at Orlando MakerFaire 2019
- Doubled turnout of Girls' Math Competition and Math Kangaroo

American Mathematics Competition 8

Julia Robinson Mathematics Festival at the University of Florida

Thank You to our Sponsors and Partners!

- 4 weeks of Summer Internships:
- Made Exploding Dots video for Global Math Week
  - Started Grid Journal Project
  - Prepared for Girls' Math Competition

Maker Faire® Orlando

Winter Park Community Center Afterschool Math Circle

Monthly Teachers' Math Circle

September: Mark Anderson
(Rollins College Dept. of Math & Computer Science)

November: Ruth Estabrook
(Senior Editor, Curriculum Associates)

October: James Tanton

(Mathematics Association of America, Founder of Global Math Project)

August: Hector Rosario

(Director of Festivals, Julia Robinson Mathematics Festival)

February 2020 : Hector Rosario

March 2020: Daniel McConnell

April 2020: Jay Yellen

Fall Competitions:

- Who Wants To Be A Mathematician
- Math League for High School
- Second Annual Girls' Math Competition
- American Mathematics Competition (AMC 8)

Upcoming Spring Competitions:

- MOEMS
- AMC 10/12
- Monthly Math League
- MathCON
- Math Kangaroo
- Purple Comet